KENNETH BROTT, Office Manager

Telephone FA 5-5005

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy, and impartiality in the news; to the progress of the desert region; to the support of that which it believe to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes to be wrong.

The Wily Chancellor

"Not through force," was the an-

"If the East Germans and Hungarians should again rebel against their Communist regimes

Here is a three-word explanation, emphatically given, of how the free Germans feel toward a number of pending matters. tells how they feel about the reunion of Germany, about the lib eration of the East Germans and other European satellites.

(as did also the Austrians, French and Italians) about star ing a war in 1956 to free the heroic Hungarians. As reported then in this place, and reiterated now, the Europeans who have een war want no more of it. Freedom, yes; democracy, sure; down with Russia, positively -but "Not through force!"

European thinking, it is easy to understand why NATO is a military alliance on paper, but an American protectorate of continental Europe in reality. These countries wishfully believe that something might come of talks ith the Kremlin. They stall on rearmament. They agree only "in principle" to receive American missile sites. They hope for way out - but "not through

Curtain felt the same way and had the same voice in their own governments. But such is so far from being the case that the German position, although laudable as a philosophic tenet looks unrealistic under existing circumstances. people with a wish to arm in the face of danger, with a reluctance to be defended by the best available weapons, are fertile minds for the propaganda of pacifism which the Russians are now tun-

Adenauer and his party wobble a bit under pressure. they appear to perceive the very fine distinction between a nonaggression policy and a policy of pacifism. The Chancellor is 82, and t is doubtful if his party can win without him. The signs are that the opposition leaders and parties in Germany are in a mood to listen to the Soviet propaganda. It is not a promising picture

BUT WHO CAN blame the Germans for being confused? They are notoriously a people who learn by rote. Hitler taught them to chant the glories of war. He purged the dissenters. The Americans overcame Hitler, taught the Germans to renounce war and love peace. We also purged the dissenters at the gaudy Nuremberg "trials" for "war crim-

Now today we have reinstated one of the Nazi "criminals" who escaped hanging, General Spreidel, and made him the NATO commander of ground troops. We ask the Germans, who are prospering from their peace time industries, to change their thinking for a third time—and to embrace war as a necessary way

YET THE PICTURE, while unpromising and certainly un-clear, is far from being hopeless. If it did not seem too simple and logical to believe, there is glimmer of a sign that Dr. Adenauer is actually winning his sector of this cold war.

Behold the contrast. In West Germany there is political freedom, prosperity such as Ger-mans never had in history, a semblance of peace in that military burdens are almost non-existent. In East Germany there is suppression, hunger that has caused bread riots, and military impressment into the services.

AND THE RESULT? There are an astonishing 5,000 perso a week still crossing from East Germany to West Germany. This has raised the Federal Republic's population from 39 million to 50 million. It has attracted foreign ivnestment, so that one-fifth of the capital funds in Germany comes from outside. It has made West Germany the boom - place of Europe. It has caused West Germany to be included, at a nominal fee as yet, in the American protectorate.

This is either winning a cold war, or giving a good imitation of so doing. And it leaves the thought that the wily Dr. Adenauer's foreign policythrough force" - may be a lot at first .- Holmes Alexander.

New York Grapes Turn Sour

HOLLYWOOD - There are Yorkers who've been making noises to the effect that lywood from the Big City can only result in a loss of quality for the series. The way I see it only means Manhattan's grapes have turned sour.

Actually, Studio One producer Norman Felton has some big plans to improve the series - including "Ex-President," story of a one-time President of the U.S. who after leaving office tries to be of assistance to his country but meets with rebuffs at every bend of the road; "The Tongues of Angels," a fine love story by John Vlahos; "The General," by Adrian Spies: "The Survivors," a yarn about the Air Force's survival techniques for its men in prison camps; Paul Gallico's for the One boys; and a rip-roarin' melodrama, "A Man Aft-His Own Heart," by Henry

Our most recent visit recently was one of the most memorable in our career and brought home to us vividly their increasing faith and their determination to lead their people inside this faith. This was our fifth trip into Formosa in the past few years and another pleasant interlude of our long friendship with these dedicated leaders of Free China. While this visit is fresh in mind, we want to share a few personal glimpses of President Chiang Kai-shek and China's first lady, and some of the back ground that brought them such international significance. ON THE SUBJECT of Presi dent Chiang Kai-shek we find ourselves out of step with some observers, but from our point of view some observers are out of step with us. Most people who knew Chiang intimately admire him immensely: Most of those we meet who dislike him are either Communists, leftists, poliopponents, or misguided sions based on rumors, lies and propaganda, which are the tools the enemies of any government, or any person. Chiang Kai-shek was born at Chikow, Chekiang, of farmer parents in 1887. According to Chinese custom the day a person is born is considered his first birthday — so last October 31 he reached 71. His father died when Chiang was eight and his mother was left with five young children to raise. POVERTY STRICKEN, as was China in those days, it did n offer facilities for education and culture, especially to a young man who at a very early age decided on an army career. The stagnation and despotism of the Manchu oppressive rule stirred the youth's imagination to serve people toward a better life He managed to complete prep-aratory schools in Chikow and high school in Fenghua, with highest honors.
